Community Input Survey

Every half decade, the Appalachian Regional Commission (ARC) develops a strategic plan to guide important economic and community development efforts in the Appalachian region. For just one more week (ending June 19), community members across Appalachia have a critical opportunity to weigh in on issues, challenges and opportunities and to help shape the agenda. Any and every resident of Appalachia is encouraged to...

ARC serves parts of 13 states: Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, South Carolina, North Carolina, Kentucky, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and New York.

See a list of counties served by ARC. The survey is designed to help ARC gather input from residents like you!

Summer Solstice Celebration

On Sunday June 21st from 1-4pm, the Evergreen Heritage Center Foundation and its partners are hosting a Summer Solstice Celebration at the Evergreen Heritage Center (EHC) in Mount Savage. The Celebration will have activities for the entire family.

- Help us plant our pollinator meadow and take home a free native plant
- Watch a demonstration of our sawmill
- Taste food from our gardens and the gardens of Savage River Farm (all prepared by The Shift restaurant in Frostburg)
- Listen to live music presented by local musicians
- Tour the EHC's new STEM Pavilion plus the Heritage Hoop House and the Evergreen Museum
- Learn about and purchase native plants

For more information, call 301-687-0664 or visit www.evergreenheritagecenter.org
